

Our Nought @ PROMISE

All of us at The Nought-E Food Company are passionate about providing beautiful, delicious, fresh food for you to enjoy!

We source ingredients of the highest quality from our premium butcher supplied sausages and bacon to deliciously fresh vegetables that we roast & blend every day to make our wonderful gluten free soups, which contain nothing but seasonal vegetables, fresh herbs and spices and of course a little Nought-E magic!

We also cook and slice our own beef and horseshoe gammon which means very little water content, absolutely no preservatives and together with our own blended mayo mixes, makes for deliciously fresh sandwiches!

We are proud to offer the freshest, tastiest food that we can and always with our excellent Nought-E food service!
